

Erosion and Sediment Control

Introduction for consultants and local authority staff, two-day workshop

Draft Programme - Day 1

8:15 - 8:30 am		Arrival, registration and coffee
8:30 - 9:00		Introductions and workshop overview
9:00 - 9:30		Practical activity: erosion and sediment control device specifications Open discussion
9:30 - 9:50	Module 1	Sediment runoff: the extent of the problem
9:50 - 10:10	Module 2	Principles and processes of erosion and sedimentation
10:10 - 10:30		Morning tea
10:30 - 11:15	Module 3	Introducing Environment Canterbury's Erosion and sediment control guideline
11:15 - 12:00	Module 4	Erosion control: principles, tactics and tools
12:00 - 12:30		Lunch
12:30 - 2:00	Module 5	Sediment control: principles, tactics and tools
2:00		Afternoon tea (on bus)
2:30 - 3:30	Module 6	Site visit to active earthworks site
3:30 - 5:00 pm	Module 7	Site visit to study area Preparation for erosion and sediment control plan activity Preparation for assessment of effects activity

Draft Programme - Day 2

8:30 - 8:35 am		Review Day 1
8:35 - 9:15	Module 8	Case studies: big and small sites
9:15 - 10:00	Module 9	Why do we do all this?
10:00 - 10:20		Morning tea
10:20 - 11:15	Module 10	How policies, plans and rules affect our developments
11:15 - 12:00	Module 11	Practical activity: preparing an erosion and sediment control plan
12:00 - 12:30		Lunch
12:30 - 1:30		Practical activity: presenting an erosion and sediment control plan
1:30 - 3:00	Module 12	Practical activity: preparing an assessment of environmental effects
3:00 - 3:15		Afternoon tea
3:15 - 4:00	Module 13	Environmental offences, liability and enforcement
4:00 - 4:15		Open discussion with Environment Canterbury representative
4:15 - 4:50	Module 14	What does all this mean for managing your site?
4:50 - 5:00		Workshop overview, questions and feedback, evaluation
From 5:00		Informal networking with product sponsors